EXPOUNDS THEORY OF NUMBER OF NATIONAL QUESTIONS TO NEWS

Senator Charles McNary, of Oregon, today expounded his theory of the number of national questions to the news. He said that there were three main questions: the first, the question of the future of the United States; the second, the question of the future of the world; and the third, the question of the future of the human race. He said that these three questions were the only ones that mattered, and that they were the only ones that he would discuss.

SENATOR CUMMINS HERE; TO MEET HARDING

IOWA SENATOR TO BE A MEMBER OF THE HARDING PARTY ON FLORIDA CRUISE

EXPOUNDS THEORY OF NUMBER OF NATIONAL QUESTIONS TO NEWS

Senator Albert C. Cummins, of Des Moines, Iowa, one of the members of a widely known group of senators close to the incoming administration arrived in Daytona today, and is a guest at the Hotel Ridgewood.

The noted senator is here for a short visit, previous to his joining the president-elect's party at Jacksonville when they arrive in the state one week from today, Jan. 18th, following which the Harding party, the Cummins party and others, will be guests of Senator Joseph S. Frelinghuysen of New Jersey, aboard his house boat for a cruise through South-eastern waters, until a few days previous to the inauguration of the new president.

BOOZE BOAT MADE GET-AWAY FROM PROH. OFFICER

The much-talked-of booze laden boat that was reported stranded and captured at Mosquito Inlet, made a get-away from Prohibition Enforcement Officer W. L. Cooper yesterday.

The boat came into the inlet and became stranded on a sand-bar. After getting loose, engine trouble developed. Captain Lindquist of the lighthouse went out and offered aid but his aid was declined. Mr. Cooper in the meantime got after the boat and started for it but before he arrived it went out the inlet and headed south and no trace has since been found of it.

Harding Turns Over All Plans for "Splurge" at Inauguration Exercises

(The Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, Jan. 11.—An announcement that at the request of Harding the Washington inaugural committee has cancelled all plans for the celebration in connection with the inauguration was received today with varying emotions. Those who opposed reviving the custom of making the occasion a gala one, chiefly on account of the expense involved, expressed commendation. Others, while sympathizing with the spirit which prompted Harding's request, showed disappointment. House leaders expressed the view that plans for the outdoor inaugural ceremony at the capitol probably will be abandoned.

(The Associated Press.)
MARION, Jan. 11.—If Harding has his way his inauguration will be as devoid of frills as a frontier wedding. Having overturned plans for a revival of the inaugural ball and the spectacular inaugural parade, he indicated today that as far as he consistently could, he would keep away from whatever crowds assembled in Washington for the event and will make the change of administration just a matter of taking executive offices under new management.

(Newspaper Enterprise Association.)
WASHINGTON, Jan. 11.—One million dollars.

That's the best estimate of what the Harding inauguration will cost the taxpayers.

They'll pay it through the federal government or through the states.

In addition it's estimated that there'll be 100,000 visitors at the inauguration, who'll spend an average of $100 each, making a total of $10,000,000.

So Harding's inauguration will be by far the costliest in history.

O'CALLAGHAN IS ORDERED DEPORTED

(United Press.)
WASHINGTON, Jan. 11.—The State department today asked Secretary of Labor Wilson to deport Daniel O'Callaghan, the lord mayor of Cork. The State department refused to waive passport regulation in his case.

PARTY MET BY I. N. S. CORRESPONDENT, SAYS MEN IN GOOD SPIRITS

By CAPTAIN CLERMONT
Copyright International News Service

MATTICE, Ont., Jan. 11.—The American balloonists should reach Mattice by 2:00 o'clock this afternoon. I met them Sunday afternoon. All are well. Lieut. Kloor is leading the party. Tramping with him were Lieutenants Hinton and Farrell, all on snow shoes and delighted to see a white man. Kloor seemed in the best of health. Hinton's features are drawn. Kloor had two weeks' growth of beard. Kloor in an interview corroborated the story carried by the International News Service Saturday night.

KERENSKY CALLS FOR SUPPORT IN EFFORT TO PUT OUT SOVIET

(United Press.)
PARIS, Jan. 11.—(Copyright United Press.)—Russia must be saved from being looted by voracious American capitalists, Alexander Kerensky declared today in an exclusive interview. With this objective, the former premier called for all anti-Bolshevik factions to rally to him and hurl Lenin and Trotsky out of power.

Foreign capitalists who acquire long term grants in Russia from the Soviet government are picking the pockets of prostrate Russia, Kerensky said. "I am organizing here in Paris a civilized government for Russia. We will overthrow the Soviets."

Lenine Dangerously Ill.
(The Associated Press.)
NEW YORK, Jan. 11.—Lenine, Russian Bolshevik premier, is dangerously ill at Moscow, according to a wireless received today from Berlin to the Jewish News bureau here.

The message said three German specialists are enroute to Moscow for a consultation. Verification of the report was sought from the Soviet representative in Berlin, but he refused to confirm or deny it.

Message to Parents
(Copyrighted by United Press)
CROWLEY, La., Jan. 11.—A message from the frozen north—a message of good cheer to relieve the worries of father and mother—was received in the sunny south today. With its coming joy emanated from the home of Lewis P. Kloor, father of Lieut. Kloor, one of the three American navy balloonists now returning from the wilds of Northern Canada. Young Kloor in describing the hardship endured by himself and companions, declared their suffering was almost unbearable. It was hell and misery he said. They landed on the afternoon of Tuesday, December 14, the cold was deadly. "I had on my light summer underwear," said Kloor. "We could only walk for about two hours at a time and then build a fire to keep our feet from freezing." Then Kloor told how they found an Indian who could not speak English, but through signs they made him understand that they were lost. The Indian led them to Moose Factory. "It makes me feel sad to think this incident in my life will have caused you so much worry and distress during the holidays, but if you know how near to death we were, you would forgive all and forget. Pray for me."

BOLSHEVISM SPREADS OVER PERSIA; GUARD IS BEING WITHDRAWN

(United Press.)
LONDON, Jan. 11.—Bolshevism is spreading over Persia so rapidly that the British regular army has been ordered withdrawn and all British women and children have been ordered out of Tehran according to dispatches here.

Cabinet ministers and former cabinet officers of Persia in an extraordinary council have agreed to evacuate Persia and to evacuate Persia, reports said. All legations and the Shah and his court are expected to withdraw from Tehran in the spring, reports said.

Men Are Safe
(International News Service)
MATTICE, Jan. 11.—The three American naval balloonists, Lieutenants Hinton, Kloor and Farrell, whose adventures in the frozen north have thrilled all America, are safe. They crunched over night at Skunk Island, twenty miles from Mattice and are expected to reach here before night, unless held up by an accident or freshly fallen snow. The first to reach the balloonists party was Agost Clement, correspondent of the International News Service, who greeted the men on the trail.

Last Twenty Mile Lap
(The Associated Press.)
MATTICE, Jan. 11.—The three American naval balloonists broke camp 20 miles north of here this morning and started on the last lap of their long march back to civilization. It will now take the party about twelve hours to reach Mattice.

Indian Runner Reports
(United Press.)
MATTICE, Jan. 11.—All well overboarded on the prospect of speedy return. This is the first word from the American navy balloonists, Lieutenants Kloor, Hinton and Farrell, since they left Moose Factory. It was discovered today how easy by Karl Thompson came on skates of the American that the Americans had arrived at Skunk Island, 20 miles from here. Thompson came on ahead on the American to report their safety.

low prices or high prices, the country needs crops. To grow them farmers must have potash for fertilizers. Many has, and is anxious to sell, quantities of potash. An American combine is operating in Europe, buying potash as cheaply as it can, and selling it here for as high a price as possible.

Germany wanted to come here and direct at low prices to farmers and others. Passports are refused. They are not allowed to enter the United States. This means more expensive fertilizer for farmers, higher prices for food, prosperity for the potash combine.

It is on a par with the high influence that sends Russian gold and Russian trade to England, refusing to have either here. Fortunately some of the nonsense will end about March 4th.

It is well known that France will not reduce her army. She means to be ready at any moment to fight Germany. We know by experience what happens when France fights Germany. ORD MAYOR OF CORK APPEARS BEFORE THE COMMISSION THURS.

(The Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, Jan. 11.—Lord Mayor O'Callaghan of Cork, who arrived as a stowaway and in whose case the State department refused to waive the passport requirement, will appear on Thursday before the commission investigating conditions in Ireland.

Accompanying Senator Cummins is his brother and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Cummins, of Chicago, also his brother, J. C. Cummins, of Des Moines.

Sensor Cummins had no information as to whether the party would stop off in the Triple Cities, on their cruise south, but there is every reason to suppose that the president-elect and his party will spend at least several days here next week, and attend the Rural Educational Conference at the Auditorium as well as to enjoy several rounds of golf on local courses.

Sensor Cummins came to Florida early in the season hoping that the wonderful climate would restore him to his usual good physical condition. In the fall he suffered from a severe attack of influenza and since then has not enjoyed his usual robust health. Senator Cummins is personally one of the most charming and lovable men in public life and one whom it is always a pleasure to know. He talked freely to a representative of the News regarding matters of public interest and among other things said:

"I have every confidence in President-elect Harding and the fact that he is calling upon men of experience into conference with him gives the people a feeling of safety and assurance. This feeling the government is too big a job for any one man and none of a responsibility than any one man should want to undertake. President Harding is a wise safe man."

Regarding the relationship of England and the United States Senator Cummins said:

"To me it is unthinkable that there should ever be any trouble between the two great English speaking peoples of the world. Such a thing would mean the complete wrecking of the entire world."

"I do not believe that any one living today will ever see another great war. All the world is bankrupt except the United States. No nation wants war or has anything to gain by it. Some people have a fear of trouble between this country and Japan. Although Japan benefited more by the great world war, perhaps less than any other country and with less sacrifice she, too, is bankrupt. Japan would have nothing to gain by war with the United States and there would be nothing to be gained by this country. While there will be bickering and disputes and while the smaller countries of Europe will continue in the future, as in the past, to wrangle over their boundaries, that will be about the extent of it."

"Of course human nature is the same now as it has always been, and it may be that when the wars of the past great war are all healed and the treasury again replenished, there might again be a big war but it will not be until in the far and distant future in my judgment."

Regarding the proposed reduction of the inaugural expenses to $10,000,000, the price of an automobile to take the new president to the White House, Senator Cummins said:

"Really most of the inaugural expense is borne by the people of Washington principally the hotel. If the people there want to put up the money for a big time and celebration, I see no objection to it. The government appropriates enough money to erect the seats about the capitol in order that people may at least see, even though they cannot hear what goes on and also for the inaugural ball the government is at the expense of erecting one of the big buildings there but it seems to me this is a matter of small moment. There are no more more important things to consider than I really have not thought much about it."

"I see by the morning paper that President-elect Harding has himself called off all expensive and unnecessary display and the people will generally be safe in relying upon his good judgment to do about what is right. It is well to cut down these expenses for it is with an example of economy for the entire country."

Sensor Cummins expressed himself as delighted with Florida and Daytona and said it had been many years since he has been here and that in the meantime the Triple Cities had grown into a place of much beauty and importance.

Sensor Cummins will remain in Florida for the balance of the winter and does not contemplate going to Washington until after the inauguration.

DETECTIVE BURNS OF OPINION CRIME WAVE WILL HAVE EARLY END

(Newspaper Enterprise Association.)
NEW YORK, Jan. 11.—William J. Burns, master detective, predicts the crime wave will exhaust itself within six months.

Burns' personal police in all 102 cities could put a lighter check on crime.

His personal detective investigation of police department, not excluding every effort to maintain crime.

"What is the cause of the crime wave?" asked Burns.

"History shows that a wave of crime has followed every war. We have just had the greatest war and now the greatest crime wave."

How War Reacted

"Just how did the war increase criminality?"

"We suddenly took 100,000 young men from all walks of life, taught them the arts of war and then put them on the battlefields. Many lost their sense of proportion, human life came to mean little."

"Then, suddenly, they were released from the army. Many didn't want to go back to the ordinary pursuits of life. They craved excitement and that reacted to crime in general."

Effect of Prohibition

"What effect did prohibition have on crime?"

"It is responsible of some of the more monstrous and heinous crimes. But I believe prohibition has wiped out many of the 'commonplace' and 'low' breeding crimes for criminals."

"How can the crime wave be checked?"

"By working with the police and prosecuting."

"What will happen if the crime wave is not quickly checked?"

"Nothing to cause alarm. It cannot continue anyway. Within six months the crime wave will have disappeared and we will be back automatically to normal conditions."

DANIELS SUGGESTS HARDING CONFER ON DISARMAMENT PLANS

(United Press.)
WASHINGTON, Jan. 11.—Secretary of the Navy Daniels before the House naval affairs committee today advised President-elect Harding to call a conference of all nations for the purpose of an agreement on disarmament. Harding should strive for such an agreement if the United States is not to become a member of the League of Nations, he said. Daniels said that conference should be held in Washington and that there should be no negotiation in shipbuilding, Daniels added.

(International News Service)
WASHINGTON, Jan. 11.—Casting aside the proposal for a naval holiday between United States, England and Japan as a makeshift undertaking of no real value, Secretary of the Navy Daniels today before the House naval affairs committee in a frank discussion of the disarmament question declared the United States must either join immediately in a world-wide agreement to reduce armaments or embark on a great new building program which will make the American navy equal to it. He said the greatest in the world. No half-way measures will suffice, said Daniels. Equality with the armament, and protection of international agreements, are the only ways to secure peace. Daniels said he favored an international agreement to disarm, but if that could not be secured, he would support an armament competition in which the United States would guarantee an end to competition in naval building, reduce the national burden and lead a movement to secure and business world peace.

The Daughter Pays, Moving Picture, at Auditorium Th'sday

Another great picture, "The Daughter Pays," will be shown at the Auditorium Thursday evening. The story is by Mrs. Balle Reynolds and is full of human interest. Miss Elaine Hammerstein, daughter of the famous opera producer and herself a finished actress, is the star in this production. While Virginia Mynors and her friend, Miriam Roseborough, are visiting a London art gallery they attract the attention of Osbert Gaunt. He is a man of gentle nature, who, because of being filled in his younger days by a beautiful woman, has become a brutal cynic, who lives with the one ambition of causing some cruel humiliation to the women who have made him suffer. That woman is the mother of Virginia Mynors.

Physically, the daughter is the duplicate of her mother, and Gaunt concludes that she is also her mother's duplicate mentally and spiritually. Gaunt also observes that Virginia appears to be greatly taken with Miriam's brother Gerald.

The Roseboroughs are wealthy, but not nearly as rich as Gaunt, who figures that if he cuts in with an offer of marriage and Virginia accepts him and throws overboard Gerald, it will prove that she is her mother over again. His plan is to marry her, take her away from the gay life of London society, and while keeping up outward appearances, to heap upon her every insult and trauma that he would like to have inflicted on her mother.

To save her family from poverty, therefore, Virginia accepts Gaunt's proposal. Gaunt starts his campaign of vengeance on the very day of their marriage by bluntly stating the reason he has married her. Finding he cannot break down on her submissive quietness, he becomes aware that he is not deriving the satisfaction out of his revenge that he expected.

Virginia decides to make the best of an unfortunate situation and to obey Gaunt in everything, but refuses to accept his standards or show any friendliness towards him. It is only when he opens her private mail before her eye that she tells him how she loathes him. More shaken by this than he cares to admit, he is still more worried when her physician informs him that the nervous tension has brought his wife to the verge of a physical breakdown, and it is imperative that she leave him at once and go away to some place where she can have complete rest and quiet. Gaunt's revision of feeling is complete, and in the shame and misery of what he has done, mingled with his joy in having got back his belief in women, he begins making remorseful plans of how he will make friends with Virginia.

Gaunt reveals his love, but the barrier of distrust and the memory of the past will not permit of a complete and immediate reconciliation. He decides to kill himself and leave her free to marry the man he thinks she loves.

A friend falls into a hole filled with gas and Gaunt goes down to rescue him. He finds the unconscious man and sends him up to safety, but remains at their bottom himself. He gradually loses his senses and feels himself sinking when at last his consciousness is penetrated by the sound of Virginia's voice calling "Osbert! I want you!" Then he opens his eyes and finds himself on the ground in his wife's arms. Then follow explanations and reconciliations and Osbert Gaunt begins again to create happiness in place of the misery he had caused.

Miss Mabel McKenney of Chattanooga, Tenn., has just had her 10 room house moved from 228 Atlantic avenue to 229 Ocean front. It was quite a job, but carried out without incident, and during the several days it took to do it Miss McKenney and her mother, Mrs. Cora McKenney, who is her guest, remained in it. It had to be raised considerably and some of the time it was on a real incline and caused them to be a little dizzy. They are now comfortably situated and like their new view immensely. W. C. Perry had the contract and cleaned up the job for $635.

My. Pickford Works Out New Play While on Her Honeymoon

Mary Pickford's very latest moving picture appearance is in "The Love Light," which is said to be something very different than anything she has ever been seen in before.

This foremost of artists will be seen in "The Love Light" at the Auditorium on Saturday evening, January 15th.

Ever since Mary Pickford has had her own producing organization and could dictate as to the type of photography in which she was to appear, she has adapted the policy of never adhering entirely to one line of parts, not only because she believes that the public likes variety, but because she believes the different line of characters tend to increase her ability as an artist.

Those who saw her recent comedies will certainly enjoy her in her forthcoming production, which was written and directed by Frances Marion, who has been acclaimed the leading scenario writer of the country, and bids fair to standing at the head of the list of directresses.

"The Love Light" has unusual interest owing to the fact that the idea was worked out while Miss Pickford was on her honeymoon. She met Frances Marion in Italy, also on her honeymoon, and the two worked out the story sitting on a high rock overlooking the Adriatic, and it was in Italy they secured many of the properties and several of the players who support Miss Pickford. The players and properties were brought all the way from southern Europe to California, where the Italian settings were minutely reproduced from photographs taken by the two.

Miss Pickford has appeared in comedy-dramas, but never in an emotional drama of the type of "The Love Light," and it was only after careful study and deliberate consideration that she felt herself equal to the tremendous role she plays in this story. Those who have seen the production say that Mary Pickford rises to historic artistic effects which a screen artist has never before attempted, but in all this, in the clever characterization of an Italian girl, she is still the beautiful Mary whom we love so much.

Miss Pickford has surrounded herself with a splendid cast, which includes such artists as Joan De Briac for several years, leading man to Sarah Bernhardt; Raymond Blum, Edward Phillips, Albert Prescott, Evelyn Dunn, who played with Miss Pickford in "Little Peppina," but who has returned to Italy to play important roles in an Italian company, and George Rigas.

The photography was done by Charles Rosher, who was also responsible for the photographic effects in "Suds," "Polyantha" and several other recent productions of Miss Pickford.

Frank L. Ferguson of Neptune Plans to Go Into Real Estate

Frank L. Ferguson, the new landlord of the Neptune hotel, has a force of workers getting the premises in proper shape for the opening which will probably be the latter part of the week.

Accompanying Mr. Ferguson is Miss Grace L. Johnson, also of Brooklyn, a trained hotel woman of large experience, who has been with her present employer for eight years. She has a sister who also thoroughly understands the hotel business, and she has been with Mr. Ferguson for 10 years and will come here a little later. In Mr. Ferguson's absence Miss Johnson will be his representative, and he says he does not intend to be very closely confined to the hotel.

Mr. Ferguson is a man of affairs, and he will no doubt prove a valuable asset to this community. He has had much to do with real estate development and he expects to have more or less to do with this in the South. Last year he built and sold 50 houses in Brooklyn at a time when they were most needed of any time in the history of the city. He recently sold his Franklin avenue hotel in Brooklyn, said to have been the best furnished apartment house in the New York district, and he says he never expects to spend another winter in the North. He has spent five winters in California and has visited all of the Florida resorts. In his opinion there is room for wonderful development in this locality. He feels that the peninsula territory, between the river and the ocean, is particularly attractive and that the future will prove that it has untold advantages over most any other section. He feels, however, there is much that can be done to beautify and generally develop the ocean frontage and that for many miles, both north and south from here, there are almost indescribable possibilities.

Mr. Ferguson says that when he was here in December he made an offer to rent the Neptune, not so much that he wanted to go into the hotel business here, but because he had disposed of many of his holdings in the North and did not want to remain there during the winter, and thought he would feel more at home in a hotel, as he had not been without one in years. At that time the Neptune proprietor refused to rent and I had given up all thought of coming here until I received a telegram from W. H. Courtney saying it could be rented here. I realize I am a little late for the early business, particularly for getting out any effective advertising for this season, but with me the hotel game is not the big thing, and I guess we will get along all right. What I expect to give most of my attention is real estate development, the buying and improving of tracts and then selling the improved properties. If I am not busy here along this line I will be somewhere else.

Mr. Ferguson has every earmark as a real business man who has made a success of life. He is cautious and modest in speaking of his own accomplishments, but those who know him say he is worth a lot to the city in which he lives. He has had several offers of inside opportunities from other Florida resorts, but he is simply "stuck" on this beach and nothing else looks quite as good to him.

New Selling Price Of Water, Daytona Beach is in Effect

Office of Daytona Beach Water Works, Daytona Beach, Fla.
On December 1 the investment in the water works amounts to—$63,267.77
Other assets of cash and accounts receivable amounted to—2554.56
Cash in sinking fund—558.00

This accumulation of assets was derived from the following sources:
Bonds—$32500.00
Certificates—1500.00
Gift of H. E. Pence—10000.00
Deposits from consumers—1745.00
Over-draft on bank—17.20
Cash borrowed from general fund—3481.70
Overpaid by consumers—5.82
Borrowed of H. E. Pence—2000.00
Revenue of 1920 in excess of expense—694.00
Profit of years previous to 1920—9885.52
Reserve for depreciation—2629.37

The profits of the water works previous to 1920 have been sufficient to take care of the interest on the bonds and meet the obligations of the sinking fund, but with the exception of the $550 placed in the sinking fund we have been obliged to use for extensions not only these profits but you will notice we have taken from the general fund, raised by taxation, $2481.70 we have borrowed of certificates $1500 and on note $2000, all of which should be paid.

The council have thought best to increase the selling price of water for the year 1921, as follows:
30 cents per 1000 gallons to all consumers.

On bills in excess of $10 per month a discount of 10 per cent to be allowed.

On bills in excess of $15 per month a discount of 15 per cent will be allowed.

On bills in excess of $20 per month a discount of 20 per cent to be allowed.

On bills in excess of $25 per month a discount of 25 per cent to be allowed.

The maintenance charge to be 50 cents per month as heretofore.

A charge of 50 cents will be made for turning on water.

Respectfully,

CHAS. H. WILSON

President Wilson of Tourist Club Says Widen Scope

Dr. E. T. Wilson of Owosso, Mich., the new president of the National Tourist Club, has been an extensive traveler and is an army surgeon of large experience. He served for three years in the Philippine Islands in the medical department and was located in Japan at the siege of Port Arthur. He was also in the surgeon general's department during the world's war and was located for a time at Fort Ogden, near Chattanooga. For the past year or two he has been threatened more or less with weak lungs and when he came here some weeks ago he had had a bad cough, but he has found entire relief from this, for which he gives entire credit to the beach, the salt air and the sun bathing. As a result he is today a mighty substantial friend of Daytona Beach as a resort. In speaking of the local prospects Dr. Wilson said to a News representative:

"This is certainly a most wonderful ocean front. I have seen many, but never any to compare with this. If the people here could only exploit their natural advantages to their full capacity there would be no limit to their possibilities. The wise thing to do for the long run is to exploit their salt air, wonderful bathing and driving privileges afforded by the beach and the salt air that, in my opinion, will knock out most any case of bronchitis or throat trouble and pay a little less attention to the exploiting the tourists. Most every visitor coming here has money to pay his expenses and usually pays his rentals for months in advance. This is a much better proposition than we have in the North, where we only get a month in advance at best, and lucky to get it at the end of the month more often. This makes real estate here a mighty good investment. I regard the man who bought here two or three years ago as mighty lucky. He is sure to win. While I did not want the presidency of the Tourists' club, now that it has been thrust upon me, I hope our organization may be of some benefit to the tourists during my administration. It seems to me that its purpose should not be social alone, but that it should act as the business agent of the tourists. By standing together and co-operating with the other tourists clubs of the state and the state organization it should be easy for each of us to keep in touch with conditions elsewhere. We should have a line on prices of necessities—food and rentals—so that we may know where they are treated the best. With this information we will be able to protect ourselves from the so-called peddlers and grafters, whose only purpose is to exploit the tourist instead of the wonderful natural advantages with which the good Lord has so beautifully blessed them. We should never make any unnecessary demands of any community and under no circumstances make any threats but a tourists' club should function for the benefit of tourists first, and its primary purpose should be to promote the welfare and protect the interests of the membership. We should all take an interest in the community in which we are guests and homes if whenever possible as long as we are in it. We should be glad to see our organization for our own preservation."

A. J. Quackenbush Winter Resident of Daytona, Is Dead

The many friends of Alvin J. Quackenbush, winter resident of Daytona, where for many years he had owned a home at 15 Cedar street, and where he spent the winters with his wife and daughter, Miss Olive, will be shocked to learn of his death, which occurred at his northern home in Schenectady, N. Y., burial services having been conducted there yesterday.

The late Mr. Quackenbush, who was a familiar figure about the city for many years past, was, at the time of his death preparing to return to his Daytona winter residence, with his wife and daughter when he died suddenly from the results of blood poisoning.

D. P. McQueen, also a winter resident of Daytona, and great friend of Mr. Quackenbush, in his northern home first received the news of his death by wire.

The Schenectady Union-Star has the following tribute to Mr. Quackenbush:

"Alvin J. Quackenbush, former member of the assembly, commissioner of public works in the Charles C. Duryee administration, and for 41 years a resident of Schenectady, died last night at his late home, 6 Douglas Road. Three weeks ago while showing employees on his farm north of Burnt Hills how to run a corn husker the end of the little finger on his right hand was severed and the next finger bruised. Blood poisoning developed, causing his death."

"Born in Guilderland, Albany county, Jan. 20, 1853, his boyhood was spent on a farm. Following a course at the Albany Business college in 1880, he was employed for four years in his father's wholesale commission house at Albany. In 1874 he went to Fuller's Station where he conducted a hay business for five years before coming to Schenectady where he continued in the same line on Dock street. In 1889 he disposed of that business and became eastern agent for the Anheuser-Busch Brewing Association of St. Louis, in which connection he established the Excelsior Bottling Works which he conducted until one month ago.

"Successful in business, Mr. Quackenbush nevertheless found time for public service, and many years of his life were given to the faithful performance of official duties. He served several terms in the common council as alderman from the fourth ward and in 1890 was elected to the assembly where he was kept for three terms. When Mayor Duryee appointed him commissioner of public works, he devoted himself to the work. Under his direction the department was efficiently conducted. It was a true well performed.

"About eight years ago he bought the George West stock farm of 200 acres in Saratoga county, between Burnt Hills and Ballston. Mr. Quackenbush maintained his home here, but gave general supervision to the country place.

"It had for years been his custom to spend his winters in Daytona, Florida, where he owned a winter residence. At the time of his accident he was preparing to leave for the south with Mrs. Quackenbush and their daughter, Miss Olive. D. P. McQueen, a fellow member of St. George's Lodge F. & A. M., was frequently Mr. Quackenbush's companion on these trips.

"The survivors are his wife, who was Miss Amelia Van Wile of Githoa, his daughter, Miss Olive, and two brothers, Charles of Fuller's Station and Tunis of 25 Euclid avenue, Schenectady."

Local Post of the American Legion Elects Officers

The annual meeting of the Russell C. Warner Post, American Legion, was held at the new clubrooms on North Beach street Monday evening at which time election of officers was held, many of the officers who have served the post so faithfully during the past year, when the chapter has shown great growth and prosperity, were re-elected.

The meeting was largely attended by members from the Triple Cities, and enthusiasm evidenced for the work ahead of the post.

The officers for the ensuing year are: Post commander, Clarence Bennett; vice post commander, Dr. W. H. Taylor; post adjutant, David Sholtz; historian, S. C. Smith; sergeant at arms, Quinn Branch and finance officer, A. C. Hankins. The executive committee is composed of Cecil McDonald, Norris Niver and A. Politz.

Reports of the work of the local post were most encouraging, showing splendid work being done by the former service men. The next meeting of the local post will be held Monday evening at which time all members are urged to attend.

The Girl Scouts have called a meeting of their organization to be held at Casino Burgoyne Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock at which time all girls not now members are asked to attend, and swell the ranks of the new organization.

Marvin Kicked Out by Albright Wrestling Bout

One hour and three minutes of aggressive wrestling, in which Jack Albright secured the decision over Tom Marvin, because the latter was unable to continue, delighted the fans who assembled at the Armory last night. It was fast work from the tap of the gong. When they went to the mat the first time Albright was working on top, but Marvin was doing good work, and taken as a whole it was by far the best exhibition of its kind thus far this season. The going was rather rough at times, and some of the spectators protested over the tactics employed, but they evidently failed to consider that a wrestling bout is not a pink tea affair. The sandpaper stuff was started by Marvin, who showed a disposition to pull hair and bite as well as butt with his head, but Albright didn't seem to mind and went right on with the work in hand. Three times did he get a real toe hold on Marvin and punished him severely, but failed to pin his shoulders to the mat. At one time when Marvin was working out of a hold he got a scissor on the head of Referee Jack Jordan and came very near getting a full out of the official. At the end of 51 minutes Marvin secured a toe hold on Albright with his back to his opponent, who merely took his other foot and kicked Marvin out of the squared circle into the laps of spectators. The same kind of hold terminated the match with the exception that when Albright kicked himself loose, Marvin described a half circle in the air and descended with much force on the upturned boards alighting on his head. He was knocked completely out and a physician declared him too weak to continue and Albright was awarded the bout.

Albright announced that he was willing to meet Marvin at any time he may desire a return match. The fans were all pleased with the entertainment and went home feeling that they had received more than their money's worth.

Telegrams were read from Jack Ross, Gene Westergaard and Jimmy Dennison challenging the winner.

In the preliminary Jack Harrington administered a solar plexus to Leo Leonard, and Leo was not much of a lion thereafter, as the referee counted him out. This was in the third stanza of a scheduled six round quarrel. Two boys from Lawrence, Mass., went through three rounds of shadow boxing, and many wanted to know how they got away from the mills. A battle royal was the curtain raiser and provided more entertainment than the band concert.

It was announced that on next Monday night Middleton and Anderson will put on the mitts. Anderson has been in training for three weeks and is out for the scalp of the man who knocked him out a month ago. He declares that he would "like to see Middleton do it again," and Middleton wants to know how he can see it when he will be asleep. However, he wants to accommodate Anderson, and in order to be in good condition he will train at the Armory this week. On Friday night he will give a free exhibition at the Armory and will take on all local talent who think they want to box a few fast rounds.

Nautilus Casino to Open Saturday with a Big Dance

Dixie Dick's Melody Boys will provide music for the opening dance at the Nautilus Casino Saturday night. Elaborate arrangements have been made for the affair, and this popular Seabreez amusement parlor should be crowded to capacity when the strains of the initial dance summons couples to the floor. Other features are being arranged and the management will do all in their power to make it a night long to be remembered. The Nautilus has been renovated throughout and presents an attractive appearance, while the floor is all that could be expected by the most critical devotee of ternaishore.

Mr. and Mrs. William Leet, of Omaha, have arrived in Daytona aboard their yacht Moskee, having been here earlier in the season, and has just returned from a trip to Silver Springs. Mr. Leet some years ago was widely known as "Wild Bill Leet of Omaha," due to the fact that Geo. Cohan, the song writer, wrote and published a song entitled, "Wild Bill Leet of Omaha," which he dedicated to Mr. Leet. Mr. and Mrs. Leet spent the past summer in the Orient, coming from there to Daytona, where they are visiting friends, expecting later to go down the coast and around the Keys.

VOLUSIA COUNTY STANDS SECOND IN THE STATE IN GIFTS TO NEAR EAST RELIEF, SAYS REPORT TO NATIONAL COMMITTEE

Mr. Cleveland H. Dodge, the Treasurer of Near East Relief reported total receipts of $14,697,379.91 for the year at the annual meeting of the Board of Trustees, held at the Yale Club, New York City, Friday evening, January 7th.

Mr. Dodge stated that including government flour, made available through Herbert Hoover and the American Relief Administration, the total American relief operations in the Near East during the past year amounted to more than $30,000,000, and the total since the beginning of the organization is something more than $55,000,000.

Charles V. Vickrey, the General Secretary, recently returned from the Near East, reported that more than 1,000,000 persons, chiefly refugees women and children, have during the past year received assistance, without which most of them would have perished. There are at the present time 279 American relief workers on the field exclusive of approximately the same number of Americans who are engaged in various forms of educational work, and who are voluntarily cooperating in relief activities.

The work begun among the orphans and refugees immediately after the massacres of 1915 has continued practically without interruption, and doubtless must be continued until, under some stable government, these people can be restored in safety to their lands and self-support.

Repeated massacres and deportations have occurred during the past year. Several thousand thus met death in Marash and Hadjin, exclusive of smaller outbreaks in other places. The result is that the winter months bring an ever-increasing number of refugees fled for safety to the centers occupied by the relief workers.

The recent successes of the Bolsheviks in Russian Armenia have had only a negligible influence upon relief operations since the major portion of the relief work has always been within the former Ottoman Empire rather than in Russia. Moreover, because the advances of the Bolsheviks a considerable portion of the orphanage work in Russia was, under the leadership of American workers, transferred out of the comparatively small Bolshevik area.

Tonight Marks Opening of the Chop Suey House

Tonight occurs the formal opening of Cattaneo's chop-suey rooms and from present reservations it looks as if a large number of people will be present for the opening. A Chinese chef has been engaged who understands the art of preparing Chinese food in a way that is appetizing to the palate.

Mr. Cattaneo has in the past kept several bedrooms over his grill, but now the entire second floor is occupied by dining rooms. There will be several private dining rooms, where supper parties may be held, and the entire atmosphere of the place will be such that ladies unattended may at any time visit the place. It is the plan of Mr. Cattaneo to conduct the chop-suey rooms on a very high plane and that the people of the community will appreciate the opening of the new eating place is generally conceded.

Mrs. A. G. Hunt of Second avenue will entertain at bridge Friday afternoon, a number of friends, invitations having been issued Monday for the affair.

Court Buys Feed For Boys, Instead Of Fining Them

In police court this morning Jack Morgan and Jack Nelson, two young boys in search of work, and no money, appeared charged with vagrancy, as they had no place to sleep last night. The court opened its heart to the story of the boys, and instead of fining them, gave them $2 with which to buy breakfast and depart from the city.

Three cases of drivers of automobiles and one of a bicyclist, without sufficient lights completed the morning court. Sidney Corliss, J. J. Wilson and Isaac Knight, and J. H. Lambert being present for hearing. Corliss was fined $2, the amount of his bond; Wilson got a $5 fine, as he had put up that amount as a bond, a copias was issued for Knight, as he failed to appear or give bond, while Lambert had his $2 bond estimated.

New Englanders Give Delightful Program at T.C.

One of the most interesting social meetings of the Triple Cities Tourist club, held this year, was that of Monday afternoon, at the Auditorium, when a most delightful program was rendered, in charge of the New England group of members of the club.

The new president, Dr. E. T. Wilson, presided at the meeting, while during the business session Mrs. Harry Johnson was elected treasurer to succeed G. W. Carl, resigned. Ten new members were added to the club, and Miss Louise Doran, of Rockford, Ill., chosen chairman of the program committee, which will have charge of the entertainment features.

During the program of the afternoon L. T. Mather, of Springfield, Mass., gave a violin solo, playing an overture by Schlegelberg. Mrs. M. A. Cune gave a reading, "Memory Story of Van Dyke's Other Wise Men." Mrs. E. P. Bany gave two piano numbers, "The Mill" by Jenson, and "Humoresque" by Dvorak. Mrs. R. E. Brown sang two numbers, "Sing Me to Sleep" and "Mother Machree." Mrs. Adam Marks played Rubenstein's Prelude in C minor.

The next meeting of the Triple Cities Tourist club will be held at Casino Burgoyne on Monday afternoon at 1 o'clock.

FIRE DESTROYS DEPART. OF COMMERCE BUILDING ALONG WITH RECORDS

(The Associated Press.)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 11.—Officials are still unable to estimate the loss from fire in the department of Commerce building last night which destroyed many original records of over a century since the first fire, except that of last year. There are no doubt copies of the destroyed records. The loss is believed probably the worst in the history of the government's files.

Two Burned to Death
(The Associated Press.)

CLEVELAND, Jan. 11.—Two men were dead from burns and eight persons including three women, were injured in a fire which swept the Chestnut hotel here today. Several persons were reported missing. The injured were kept in hospital from second story windows. Lifeboats were spread on the ground but in the smoke and darkness missed the boats.

LITTLE MISS MARGARET LIVEZEY INSISTS ON RIDE

Jolly Bill Lindley is daily learning that it pays to be a good fellow. During the past several weeks Mr. and Mrs. George Livezey and their bright and rugged little daughter, Miss Margaret, of Philadelphia, were guests of the beach. While here Margaret spent considerable time on the beach watching the flying of the airplanes. Among others she saw Jolly Bill operate, and she seemed to fill the bill. Some days ago Miss Margaret and her parents left here to take a look at Palm Beach and Miami. They returned yesterday, and Mr. Livezey says that all the way to Miami and back little Margaret was continually wishing she could take a ride in an airplane and all the time she insisted she would not ride with anyone but Jolly Bill. So upon their arrival the father arranged with Mr. Lindley to take Margaret up. She had her ride, and she did, as nothing pleases him so much as to please someone else. His disposition is certainly worth a fortune.

PENINSULA LOCALS

Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Fowler of Fort Wayne, Ind., are recent arrivals at the Hotel Dixie.

G. W. Embury of Louisville, Ky., an extensive stock dealer with large interests in several northern cities, has been the guest for a few days of his cousin, Mrs. Nannie Jewell Embury, of the Pinehurst on Peninsula drive. He has been here before often and expects to return before the season is over.

Many people were delighted with the band music on the beach Sunday afternoon, and large crowds of people gathered there to enjoy it. The community is indebted to the thoughtfulness and generosity of the Daytona Band for co-operating with the Keesler orchestra in furnishing this rare treat.

Miss Mildred Marks, formerly of Cooperstown, N. Y., whose winter address is 22 Orange avenue, Daytona, has accepted a position with President R. S. Holmes of the Open Forum and Director James Heaton of the Assembly Forum as stenographer. Miss Marks assumed her new duties Monday morning.

Several Ohio people are wondering why their state is far behind most of the other states in organization. They insist that there are at least 100 candidates for president here from the Buckeye kingdom, and that there is no excuse for such a condition. Mrs. Griffith, the Tourist club secretary, will be glad to welcome any Ohioans desiring to register.

Aviators Frank Stanton and Bill Lindley had a busy time Sunday morning people the mystery of the South. Among those taking high dives in their airplanes were Mrs. L. H. Hightman, Miss Clara McGarland and L. A. Loney of Trinidad, Mrs. Evaine A. Snow, Mrs. D. S. Gardiner, H. Y. Clifton, W. C. Thompson and George C. Johnson. They all report a delightful trip and safe return.

William O. Mechem, who is representing Temple Terrace groves, took a auto party to Winter Park last Saturday to see the famous, original Temple orange tree. Those in the party were Mrs. A. B. Allen, Miss Tillie Lambert and Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Quarters. They had a very pleasant trip. They secured several snap shots of the party with the tree for a background. Mr. Mechem is making his headquarters at Daytona Beach hotel.

A. W. Shaw, leader of the boys of the Community M. E. Sanchez school, has called a meeting of 25 of them who are under 12 years of age for Thursday evening. It is his purpose to organize a group of these too young to join the Boy Scouts along the lines of the Y. M. C. A. work and inaugurate with them the Christian citizenship training program. He hopes in the end to develop these boys on what is known as the four square system physically, mentally, socially and spiritually. Mr. Shaw has high hopes of what he will be able to do for the boys, and Pastor D. H. Butler is giving him every possible encouragement.

CAPT. R. A. LEAVELL ARRIVES FOR TIMING WORLD RECORD AUTO RACES ON THE BEACH

Capt. R. A. Leavell, renowned automobile racing timer, who holds the official sanction of the American Automobile Association for the operation of the electric timer, which catches all world records for automobiles and motorcycles, arrived in Daytona Monday evening for the trials which Ralph M. Ford will make in his Paige stock car later in the week, and just time is given to his appearance in town today for the record trials.

Leavell was delayed in his arrival because of a train wreck below Cincinnati, the train to which he was traveling south being derailed. The engine turned over, and a number of cars piled upon the tracks. Fortunately no one was hurt.

Leavell, who is stopping at the Princess Inn, in Seabreeze, was out of town and early this morning, together with R. F. Thompson, the electrician, since over the wire course, pronouncing Mr. Thompson's work well done. Within an hour after the electrical timer was set up, Leavell had the apparatus ticking on the time of the race, which M. Ford had previously brought down on the beach for a trial run.

It may take several days for everything to be running smoothly, as M. Ford has but recently assembled his engine after giving it a complete overhauling and some parts are still at sea.

While M. Ford will make trial runs each day at his place, in timing after his machine, it is probable that the world record trials will be made about Friday, when it is believed the beach will be in a better condition.

LADIES AID SOCIETY TO HOLD A SOCIAL

On Thursday evening at 7:30 in the Epworth hall adjacent to the Methodist Episcopal church there will be held a social under the auspices of the Ladies Aid Society which promises to be one of the best of the social functions undertaken by this service organization. The High School orchestra will play several interesting readings will be given, there will be singing and some other social features. Then refreshments. Who said chicken salad? No, but those ladies can prepare good eats. Somebody say nut-bread? Cakes, too? Well better go and see. Don't forget to bring the pocket book, for the ladies will take your silver offering. Don't take anything less than a quarter, though.

HOTEL CLARENDON

Mrs. W. W. Brown and her mother, Mrs. R. J. Seibert, accompanied by Miss Stella Martin, have arrived at the Clarendon for the season. Mrs. Brown and her mother have for many years been among the winter visitors of Seabreeze, and they always make the Clarendon their home, and they always receive a hearty welcome from the management and from many friends that they have made there during their many visits. Mrs. Brown became acquainted with Miss Martin while at the Clarendon during a recent visit. The young woman was at that time an employee of the Clarendon and Mrs. Brown was quick to notice her unusual cleverness and her ability to render quick and intelligent service, and since that time Miss Martin has been a permanent and valuable member of Mrs. Brown's household.

Mr. and Mrs. John Van Benschoten entertained Miss E. A. Simpson and Mr. and Mrs. Lurch of Orona at dinner at the Clarendon Saturday evening, after which they remained for the dance and enjoyed the fine social affair.

Mr. and Mrs. Naramore and Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Plummer were among the Seabreeze folks who enjoyed the dinner dance at the Hotel Clarendon Saturday evening.

Among the interesting guests at the Hotel Clarendon dinner-dance Saturday evening were Lieutenants C. C. Chamey, L. P. Dudley, Fred Austin and J. A. Kane. These young men volunteered from Arcadia, Fla., a distance of 165 miles, making the trip in an hour and thirty minutes. They drove the huge army Haviland planes, which are considered as safe and sure as any in the world. Lieut. Austin and Lieut. Kane have for three seasons past volunteered to the Clarendon for the opening ball and always have a fine time. The three young men remained over night and Sunday afternoon returned to Arcadia, having had a most enjoyable experience.

Alfred Hess and his mother were over Sunday guests at the Hotel Clarendon, motoring from their home in Jacksonville. Mr. Hess came especially to look over the fine stock of jewelry which his firm carries in the Clarendon shop. He is a young man, less than 30 years of age, but is at the head of the big jewelry firm of Hoess & Slager, which is one of the largest business concerns in the South. Their name is sufficient guarantee for any article. They very much enjoyed their brief stay at the Clarendon and took the opportunity to enjoy the opening ball.

M. Neill, Mrs. C. H. Lawrence and daughter, Norine, were dinner guests at the Clarendon Saturday evening and enjoyed the ball that followed. Mrs. J. W. Myers of Ashland, Ohio; Miles B. Gilmore of Cleveland, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Robinson of Edmonston, Alberta, Can.; Lieut. Arden Miller and Mrs. L. Miller of Detroit, Mich.; and Miss Isabel Crowl of Lorain, Ohio, formed a pleasant dinner party at the Clarendon Saturday evening, and were guests at the ball that followed.

On Saturday a motoring party from Jacksonville, consisting of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Dexter, Dr. and Mrs. F. J. Waas, Mr. and Mrs. O. P. Woodstock, Mrs. S. Dusenbury, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Craighead visited the Triple Cities and while here were guests of the Hotel Clarendon. They had a fine trip and were thoroughly pleased with the three cities that form what many consider Florida's greatest winter resort.

R. A. Worthington of Daytona entertained a party of friends at the Clarendon Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. James J. Paris of Daytona entertained Mr. and Mrs. James T. Nelson at the Clarendon dinner-dance Saturday evening.

D. W. Allen of Daytona was a guest at the Clarendon Saturday evening. Mrs. A. K. Erogger and Miss B. A. Trask were among many Seabreeze people who enjoyed the dinner-dance at the Hotel Clarendon Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Seabree of Herkimer, N. Y., and Mrs. A. C. Burries of Ithaca, N. Y., arrived at the Clarendon Saturday and will remain for the season. Ithaca is the seat of the Cornell University and is one of the most beautiful cities in the state, and Herkimer is in the center of a rich agricultural and dairy country. The ladies left the pleasant kind of winter weather, but are enjoying the summer-like days that only Florida can give.

Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Hall of Ocala were guests at the Hotel Clarendon for the dinner-dance Saturday evening. Miss Nellie Bain was their guest.

George C. Russell of Daytona was a guest at the Clarendon Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph E. Means of Chicago are guests at the Clarendon. S. B. Chapin of New York has arrived at the Clarendon for a few weeks' stay. He is a banker and broker in the big town and comes down here to enjoy a respite from the winter of the North and to enjoy the golf links of the Clarendon.

Mr. and Mrs. Kingsley M. Whitcomb of New Haven, Conn., are guests of Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Fuller, who are occupying the Fuller cottage belonging to the Clarendon group. Mr. and Mrs. Whitcomb are on their wedding trip. The two ladies are sisters. Mr. and Mrs. Fuller have for several years occupied the same cottage, which is one of the best in Seabreeze.

Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Cummer and Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Cummer, of Jacksonville were Saturday guests at the Clarendon and enjoyed the dinner-dance.

Mrs. Frank Bond of Deland was at the Clarendon to attend the opening ball. She had as her guests Miss Nellie Long and Miss Helen Bushane, also of Deland.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Young of Daytona entertained a dinner party at the Clarendon Saturday evening consisting of Mr. and Mrs. M. Dickman, Allan Wadsworth and Mr. and Mrs. John Pepper.

Mr. and Mrs. M. P. Cornwall of Daytona were host and hostess at a dinner party at the Clarendon Saturday evening and for the dance that followed. Their guests were Col. and Mrs. E. P. Woodbury and Mrs. R. W. Austin.

Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Schulte and Dr. and Mrs. Fred N. Puleston formed a pleasant party at the Clarendon Saturday evening for dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Bond of Lake Helen entertained at the Clarendon Saturday evening. Their guests were Dr. and Mrs. J. F. Waas, Mrs. S. S. Mathis of Jacksonville and Mrs. M. B. Long of Lake Helen.

Mrs. Edna H. Seelye, F. W. Seelye and A. J. Malby were guests at the Clarendon ball Saturday evening. Perhaps the largest special party at the Clarendon ball Saturday evening was that given by R. C. Green, and consisted of E. W. Green, Alfred A. Green, James Judkin Taylor of Ocala, Fla., and Mr. and Mrs. L. Perez Williams and the following popular society maids of Daytona: Miss Marian Brewster, Miss Marion Rice, Miss Margaret Davis and Miss Jane McCauldy.

Mr. and Mrs. George H. Foote and Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Bond of Deland were guests at the Clarendon Saturday evening.

PRINCE GEORGE

Recent guests at the Prince George are:

Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Rice of Louisville, Ky.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Clardon of St. Paul, Minn.

Mr. and Mrs. N. Ward of Inez, Ky.

Mr. and Mrs. Morris Hetherford of New York City.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Loundington and A. W. Van Kester of Asheville, N. C.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Barnes of Jacksonville.

Mr. and Mrs. William Callister of Queens, N. Y.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Savage and Miss Margaret Savage of New York City.

Miss Jane Matthews of Nantassett, L. I.

Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Bower of New York City.

S. J. Peabody at his handsome Halifax avenue residence on Sunday had as dinner guests Dr. Samuel Zane Patton of Philadelphia, Dr. and Mrs. Robert S. MacArthur, Dr. and Mrs. Robert S. Holmes and C. H. Stansbury.

Many people are looking forward to the good things to eat they feel sure they will have on Thursday evening, January 13, from 5 to 8 o'clock p. m. in the basement of the Cavalry Barracks church. At that time a line of those informal and delicious catered feasts will be put on and Mr. and Mrs. Robert S. MacArthur will be present to greet the guests. All are invited and a good time anticipated.
